

CALL FOR PAPERS AND POSTERS

Avian Ambassadors welcomes you to the Land of Enchantment

The 2010 IAATE conference will be hosted by Avian Ambassadors held in Albuquerque, New Mexico March 3rd – 6th, 2010.

Share your knowledge, expertise, and experience with IAATE members. We are soliciting papers on these topics:

- Training and Behavior
- Shows and Education
- Enrichment
- Conservation and Research
- Animal Management and Veterinary Medicine

- Specific requests from past Conference Evaluations included topics on husbandry training, medical challenges, medical training, bird housing, and training a behavior from start to finish

30 minutes will be allotted for each paper presentation (20 minute presentation/10 minute question/answer). Posters will be on display throughout the conference with time allotted to meet with the author.

If you would like to present a paper or poster, please send an abstract by October 1st, 2009 to:

Cassie Malina
Vice President of IAATE
Phone: 407-497-6411
Email: CMa924@aol.com

Electronic submissions are preferred. Please submit documents in Microsoft Word. Abstract and Paper/Poster Submission Guidelines can be found at www.iaate.org.

- Completed papers are due by February 10th, 2010.

*International Association of Avian Trainers and Educators
Cassie Malina
Vice President*

- Papers not received by February 10th, 2010 will not be included in the Conference Proceedings.

Format for abstracts:

- The abstract should be informative and complete.
- The abstract should include the paper or poster title, author(s), the affiliation of each author, and the text.
- The abstract format should be as follows:
  - Normal formatting
  - Font style: Regular, Times, 12pt font size
  - Paragraph style: Left alignment, single spaced
  - Margins: 1.25" margins left and right, 1" margins top and bottom
- Abstracts must be 200 words or less.
- Abstracts must include a short Bio of 150 words or less.
- Please keep in mind not all abstracts may be accepted for presentation.

Papers:

- Paper and bio format should be as follows:
  - Normal formatting
  - Font style: Regular, Times, 12pt font size
  - Paragraph style: Left alignment, single spaced
  - Margins: 1.25" margins left and right, 1" margins top and bottom
  - Bio must be 150 words or less
- Time allotted for papers will be 20 minutes with 10 minutes available for question and answer session (Total 30 minutes). Time limits will be strictly enforced to avoid impacting other scheduled events.
- Papers will be grouped loosely according to subject matter.
- Audio and visual equipment will be provided (slide projector, overhead projector, video projector, microphone/audio system). We will be able to accommodate Power Point computer presentations. Please contact Cassie Malina for other a/v needs and requests.
- It is a good idea to bring your presentation on CD or DVD so that it can be loaded onto a laptop if needed.
- As we do not currently have a universal IAATE laptop, it is recommended you bring your own laptop.
- Moderators will introduce speakers. Paper presenters may be asked to be moderators.

- If your abstract is accepted, plan to prepare a short bio on yourself to be inserted in conference materials due by February 10th, 2010. Also include your audio/visual needs at this time.
- Completed papers are due by February 10th, 2010. Papers received by the deadline will be published in the proceedings.
- Presenters whose papers are received by the deadline will receive a complimentary copy of the proceedings.
- IAATE was formed, among other reasons, to provide opportunities through which bird trainers can exchange and disseminate current knowledge, research, and other information among themselves. As a collection of the papers presented at the annual conference, the proceedings are a great way to share information among IAATE members. Therefore, it is extremely important to meet the February 10th, 2010 deadline so that your paper can be included in the proceedings and everyone can benefit from the knowledge you've chosen to share.

Posters:

- Posters will be displayed in either the general meeting room or another room. The room will be locked when unattended.
- Easels and tables will be provided as needed. Please get your poster needs to Cassie Malina by February 10th, 2010.
- If your abstract is accepted, plan to prepare a short bio on yourself to be inserted in conference materials due by February 10th, 2010. Also include your poster needs at this time.
- Bio must be 150 words or less
- Time will be designated in the schedule for participants to view posters and meet with poster presenters.
- Posters should be brought or sent directly to the hotel.
- Poster presenters are welcome and encouraged to submit a write-up on their poster for inclusion in the conference proceedings. Completed write-ups are due by February 10th, 2010. Papers received by the deadline will be published in the proceedings.
- Poster presenters whose papers are received by the deadline will receive a complimentary copy of the proceedings.
