

International Association of Avian Trainers and Educators

Husbandry Behavior of the Year Award Application

The goal of the IAATE Husbandry Behavior of the Year Award is to recognize achievements in training birds to readily participate in husbandry practices or medical treatment.

Applicants will be evaluated on:

- Originality of the idea/behavior.
- Complexity in training the behavior.
- The safety of the bird and trainer during the behavior.

The final husbandry behavior must be shown on video.

1. Application Information

Application Year and Date: _____

IAATE Member Name: _____

Husbandry Behavior: _____

Affiliation: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

E-mail: _____

2. Briefly describe the husbandry behavior that the Awards Committee will see in the video. Include any information for the committee regarding training complexity and the safety of the bird during the procedure.

Applications must be submitted by January 31, 2017. Late applications will not be accepted. Attendance at the Annual Conference is not required.

All award entries require video footage of the behavior to be submitted electronically along with an application form describing the details of the behavior.

Please limit your video footage to 2 minutes or less unless approved by the Awards Committee.

Please return completed application by e-mail to:

Kit Lacy
IAATE Award Committee Chair
Cascades Raptor Center
PO Box 5386
Eugene, OR 97405
Email:
Kit@CascadesRaptorCenter.org

Thank you for entering and good luck!